

pictures to eke.

91

rn

AUBSTADT.

VA

P Parish Church.

II

PROT. PARISH CHURCH. Plot. Parish statistics, page 217 - BUNDSCHUH I, page 191-195 - ROST, page 151 - 153- WiELAtm in Konigshofener Archiv, page 71/72.

The tower of the church with deni-clior gelit volil nocli in the 14th jalirhundred zurtick. The nave was built between 1608 (see below) and 1613
(Ordinariatsarcliiv W., Bauregister

Fig. 10.A 11b.Bildstock.

1613-1617, fob 65, that a new fir 2224 film is being produced in the aforementioned Jalir.)

Description.

The tower superstructure probably belongs to the 18th century. (See below.)

Choir in the east tower. Ribbed-bottomed mass. The heavy, grooved ribs rest on consoles, of which the two ostliclien are decorated with heads, while the western one is covered with grape leaves, the other is designed as a canopy. Round closureBstein with six-figure motif. On the east wall a-faclies MaBwerkfenster with ruffled center post. The styles point to the 14th century. Wall thickness 1,20 m. On the Siid wall after Gothic painting window with fish bubble pattern; around 1608 Sacristy to the north of the choir; with pointed-arched barrel and small stitch caps. Choir bow pointed. Longhouse flat-roofed. On the south side three, on the west side two three-part masonry windows with fish bubbles; post-gothic, partially renewed. Portals west and siidlich; Pointed arched with Celtic and round rod shaped robe. AVestgiebel animated by two horizontal-cornices.

Turin fiinfgeschossig, I111 fourth Geschofi curved sound arcades with ge-fastem centerpost; and a dome with lantern.

On the Siid wall of the church on a relief plate with the coat of arms of the Barons of Bibra between two volutes; dariiber panel with inscription: Anno